30 ways to say, “Good Job!”

Many students thrive on recognition. Our favorite phrase is, “What you pay attention to grows!” It’s extremely important to provide specific praise- but then, you might like to add an affirmation to the end of the phrase. Example: “You used one of our target vocabulary words in this paragraph. Super work!”

- Thank you
- (Thumbs up)
- Super!
- Look at you go!
- I know you’ll rock it
- You’ve got the hang of it!
- You did it!
- Now you have it!
- This is first class work!
- Keep up the good work.
- You’re learning so much!
- This was very well done!
- Good remembering!
- That took a lot of patience.
- Your studying paid off!
- We couldn’t have done it without you!
- I couldn’t have done it better myself!
- I noticed the way you...
- Marvelous!
- You handled that well.
- That’s better than ever.
- I’m impressed.
- You make it look easy!
- Good thinking!
- You’ve mastered this.
- I knew you could do it!
- This is coming along nicely!
- I can tell you’ve put a lot of work/thought into this.
- That shows dedication.
- Very thoughtful!
